AMENDED IN ASSEMBLY APRIL 30, 2003 AMENDED IN ASSEMBLY APRIL 21, 2003

CALIFORNIA LEGISLATURE—2003-04 REGULAR SESSION

ASSEMBLY BILL

No. 1387

Introduced by Assembly Member Yee

February 21, 2003

An act to add Sections 9174, 9926, 9927, 9928, and 9929 to the Government Code, relating to the Legislature.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

AB 1387, as amended, Yee. Legislature.

Under existing law, each house of the Legislature appoints its own employees.

This bill would require that each house of the Legislature use a unique number other than an individual's social security number to identify its employees, beginning January 1, 2005.

Under existing law, state agencies in the executive branch are required to establish a permanent privacy policy that includes certain provisions.

This bill would require that each house of the Legislature establish and maintain a permanent privacy policy that includes the principles set forth in existing law for state agencies. The bill would also require each house to provide specified notice to persons before collecting personal information, to establish rules for persons using this personal information, to establish safeguards to protect the confidentiality of the personal information, and to provide notification of any breach in security.

AB 1387

11 12

13

16 17

18 19

23

24

25

26

27

The provisions of this bill would become operative on January 1, 2005.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: no. State-mandated local program: no.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

- SECTION 1. Section 9174 is added to the Government Code, 2 to read:
- 9174. On and after January 1, 2005, each house of the 3 Legislature shall use a unique identifying number other than an individual's social security number to identify its employees.
- SEC. 2. Section 9926 is added to the Government Code, to 6 7 read:
- 8 9926. (a) Each house of the Legislature shall establish and maintain a permanent privacy policy that includes, but is not limited to, the following principles:
 - (1) Personally identifiable information is obtained only through lawful means.
- (2) The purposes for which personally identifiable data are 14 collected requested are specified at or prior to the time of collection, and any subsequent use is limited to the fulfillment of purposes not inconsistent with those purposes previously specified.
 - (3) Personal data is not disclosed, made available, or otherwise used for purposes other than those specified, except with the consent of the subject of the data, or as authorized by law or regulation statute, regulation, rule, or policy adopted by the Committee on Rules of the house.
 - (4) Personal data collected is relevant to the purpose for which it is collected.
 - (5) The general means by which personal data is protected against loss, unauthorized access, use modification, or disclosure is posted, unless that disclosure of general means would compromise legitimate objectives of either house of the Legislature or law enforcement purposes.
- (b) Each house of the Legislature shall designate a position 30 within the house, the duties of which shall include, but not be 31 limited to, responsibility for the privacy policy within that house.

—3— AB 1387

1 SEC. 3. Section 9927 is added to the Government Code, to 2 read:

3

5

10 11

12

13

15

16

17

19

20

21

22

23

24 25

26

27

32

34 35

36 37

38

9927. Each house of the Legislature shall provide, on or with any form used to collect personal information from individuals, the notice specified in this section. When contact with the individual is of a regularly recurring nature, an initial notice followed by a periodic notice of not more than one-year intervals at least once per session satisfies this requirement. This requirement is also satisfied by annual notification each session to individuals of the availability of the notice. The notice shall include all of the following:

- (a) The title, business address, and telephone number of the official who is responsible for the system of records and who shall, upon request, inform an individual regarding the location of his or her records and the categories of any persons who use the information in those records.
- (b) The authority, whether granted by statute, regulation, or executive order rule, or policy adopted by the Committee on Rules of the house, that authorizes the maintenance of the information.
- (c) With respect to each item of information, whether submission of the information is mandatory or voluntary.
- (d) The consequences, if any, of not providing all or any part of the requested information.
- (e) The principal purpose or purposes within the Legislature for which the information is to be used.

The notice required by this section does not apply to requirements for an individual to provide his or her name, identifying number, photograph, address, or similar identifying information if this information is used only for the purpose of 30 identification and communication with the individual by the Legislature, except that requirements for an individual's social security number shall conform to the provisions of state and federal law. The notice required by this section does not apply to the Legislature when it uses forms adopted by another state agency.

- SEC. 4. Section 9928 is added to the Government Code, to read:
- 9928. (a) Each house of the Legislature shall establish rules of conduct for persons involved in the design, development, operation, disclosure, or maintenance of records containing

AB 1387 —4—

3

4

5

6

8

9

11

12

13 14

15

16

17

19

20

21 22

23

24

25 26

27

28

29

30

31

32

33

34

35

36

37

38

personal information, and instruct each such person with respect to those rules.

- (b) Each house of the Legislature with the assistance of the Legislative Counsel shall establish appropriate and reasonable administrative, technical, and physical safeguards to ensure the security and confidentiality of records consistent with existing law, and to protect against anticipated threats or hazards to their security or integrity that could result in any injury.
- Section 9929 is added to the Government Code, to 10 read:
 - 9929. (a) If a house of the Legislature owns or has license to computerized data that includes personal information, following discovery or notice of any breach in the security of its computerized data system the house shall notify any person whose unencrypted personal information was, or is reasonably believed to have been, thereby acquired by an unauthorized person. The notification shall be made in the most expedient time possible and without unreasonable delay, consistent with subdivision (c) and any measures necessary to determine the scope of the breach and restore the reasonable integrity of the data system. Following discovery or notice of a breach in the security of the Legislature's computerized data systems, the Legislative Counsel shall notify the affected house of the Legislature in the most expedient time possible and without unnecessary delay. Unless the Legislature discovers or is notified of a breach by other means, the Legislature shall not be required to make the notification to persons whose unencrypted personal information was, or is believed to have been, acquired by an unauthorized person, until the Legislature receives notice of the breach from the Legislative Counsel.
 - (b) If a house of the Legislature maintains computerized data that includes personal information that the house does not own or have license to, immediately following discovery or notice of any breach in the security of its computerized data system the house shall notify the owner or licensee of any personal information that was, or is reasonably believed to have been, thereby acquired by an unauthorized person.
 - (c) The notification required by this section may be delayed if a law enforcement agency determines that the notification will impede a criminal investigation.

__ 5 __ AB 1387

(d) For purposes of this section, "breach in the security" of a system means the unauthorized acquisition of computerized data that compromises the security, confidentiality, or integrity of personal information maintained by the house of the Legislature. Good faith acquisition of personal information by an employee or agent of either house of the Legislature for the purposes of the house is not a breach of the security of the system, provided that the personal information is not made subject to unauthorized disclosure.

- (e) For purposes of this section, "personal information" means any information that is maintained by an agency that identifies or describes an individual, including, but not limited to, his or her name, social security number, physical description, home address, home telephone number, education, financial matters, and medical or employment history. It includes statements made by, or attributed to, the individual. a person's first name or first initial and last name in combination with one or more of the following data elements, when either the name or the data element or elements are not encrypted:
 - (1) The person's social security number.
- (2) The person's driver's license number or California identification card number.
- (3) The person's account number, credit or debit card number, in combination with any required security code, access code, or password that would permit access to the person's financial account.
- (f) For purposes of this section, "personal information" does not include information that is lawfully made available to the general public from federal, state, or local government records.
- (g) For purposes of this section, notification may be provided by one of the following methods:
 - (1) Written notice.
 - (2) E-mail.

- (3) Electronic notice, if the notice provided is consistent with the provisions regarding electronic records and signatures set forth in Section 7001 of Title 15 of the United States Code.
- (4) Substitute notice, if the cost of providing notice would exceed two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000), or the affected class of subject persons to be notified exceeds 500,000, or the house of the Legislature does not have sufficient contact

AB 1387 — 6 —

3

5

1 information. Substitute notice may be provided by performing both of the following:

- (A) Conspicuous posting of the notice on the Web site page of each house of the Legislature.
 - (B) Notification to major statewide media.
- (h) Notwithstanding subdivision (g), if a house of the Legislature maintains its own notification procedures as part of an information security policy for the treatment of personal information and its procedures are consistent with the timing requirements of this section, it shall be deemed to be in compliance with the notification requirements of this section if it notifies subject persons in accordance with its policies in the event of a breach in the security of the system.
- 14 SEC. 6. The provisions of this act shall become operative on 15 January 1, 2005.